DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

- 1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 01/31/2005 has been entered.
- 2. The text of those sections of Title 35,U.S.Code not included in this section can be found in the prior office action.
- The prior office actions are incorporated herein by reference. In particular, the observations with respect to claim language, and response to previously presented arguments.
- 4. Claims 1, 9, 10, 19, 25 and 34-40 have been amended.
- 5. new claim 41 has been added.
- 6. Claims 1-41 are pending.
- 7. Examiner withdraws rejection of claim 40 under 35 U.S.C 112-second paragraphs due to correction by the applicant.

Response to Arguments

Application/Control Number: 09/559,230

Art Unit: 2132

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims 9-18 are moot in view of new ground of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

- 9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

 A person shall be entitled to a patent unless
 - (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 10. Claims 9, 11-14, 34-36 and 41 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Conklin et al (6,141,653 A).

As with respect to claims 9, 11-14, 34-36 and 41 Conklin et al (6,141,653 A) teach a method, system, apparatus and computer readable medium for exchanging private information associated with a client device to a server device via a proxy server (see fig., said method comprising: establishing an authorization agreement that enables the proxy server to negotiate privacy agreements with server devices on behalf of the client device wherein the privacy agreement defines a set of rules that govern the exchange of information between the client device and the server device; receiving a request at the proxy server; receiving a proposed privacy agreement from the server device associated with the request; negotiating the privacy agreement by the proxy server of behalf of the client device when not in accord with the authorization agreement; accepting the proposed privacy agreement as a privacy agreement by the proxy server for the client device when in accord with the authorization agreement; and providing the private information to the server device after said accepting of the privacy agreement and all limitation set forth in the above claims (see abstract; figures 1a through 29 and associated texts; Please see entire reference where it discloses different embodiment that includes third party involvement on behalf of client or server to negotiate secure or unsecured transactions and agreements based on created rules agreed between the parties. Examiner considers the third party corresponding to Applicant's proxy server).

Allowable Subject Matter

- 11. Claims 1-8 and 19-33 are allowed.
- 12. Claims 10 and 15-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

13. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:
